

BOOK YOUR FREEDOM

Good companions, bonfire light at the meadow up on the hill I'm ready for a storytelling I'm ready to start this trip close your eyes and listen to the chain gang's tune or bluesmen sings of wounds and cotton fields

I will lead you around places you ain't never been before sail along the old man river, settled down in New Orleans Woodie Guthrie sings for worker's rights we got Bo Diddley playing a jungle groove

Chorus:

Lansdale Carver Kerouak
They joined the caravan
Stomp your feet sing aloud
With Seeger Session Band
A steady pace of a rocking chair,
spreads good vibes in the air

I love to be a raconteur cuz i can travel high and low In my mind I'm an hobo charmed by this endless show amazing sights yes they inspired my soul i'll gather no moss cause I keep on rolling

(chorus)

Listen to Old Jack under the porch grumblin bout the 29
I was in Newport with Pete my friend I yelled my protest against Vietnam
I met Mckinley a man in ruin forced to paint the roof of the hall
I saw the Beatles and I saw the Doors
I had a blast at the L.A. bowl

Chorus:

Lansdale Carver Kerouak

They joined the caravan
Stomp your feet sing aloud
they wrote book and sang songs to release your mind one way to your freedom is keep awake the brain
A steady pace of a rocking chair

IN FLIGHT

Since the day I met you pal I needed to come down from the pedestal despite you aren't a gifted man you're the biggest treasure of this land

Sincere hugs sincere smiles there's no by-end or slimy guise the dazzling light that comes from your eyes is for me a constant lesson, a priceless prize

Chorus:
Rarely happens in life to get more than you give yeah it happened to me to get more than I gave

We usually forget how lucky we are our goal is a a luxury car the house we built, the clothes we wear material possession it's bout what we care

With no doubt now I can admit your inner power gave me grit when I'm drifting I look back into those days they came a safe shelter I won't be cast away.

(Chorus)

LEAP OF FAITH

Desert sky sandy road and my sight grew dim woke up weary and lost stuck in the middle of nowhere so far i was a grain of sand shuffled among the others then a light on the road ahead showed me the way

Chorus:

We are surrounded by pure energy turn on tune in it's a leap of faith I don't know the name of the force that made my road crossing rock 'n' roll it makes me feel alive

Followed that sign and rose on top in order to see a new sunrise ten mins has been enough to paint my masterpiece I knew before I was a rolling stone but it was my baptism of fire
I'm not at ease with stillness
I can't watch my life through a fishbowl

(Chorus)

x 2

LIGHT OF A CANDLE

How can a candle that slowly fades away
how can this candle brighten up your day
(x 2)

I met a man so weak so strong he inspired my soul so I wrote this song he was my neighbour a musician like me his passion was a contagious glee

Chorus:

How can a candle that slowly fades away
how can this candle
brighten up your day

Music from your room took me out of gloom you've been by far my shiny lucky star lookin up to you help me to get through you force sorrounds day by day

(Chorus)

So long my friend I know this ain't the end we'll meet again surely with no chain despite you're gone

I won't walk alone!
I won't walk alone!
I won't walk alone!

(Chorus)

POWER OF BEAUTY

In these days full of noise she don't have to say a word, her eyes do the talking conque – ring the whole world

I didn't notice her barefoot dancing spreading joy all around troubles made my head whirling like a relentless mary go round

Chorus:

In spite of time and its passing by I'll keep this fire burning n' bright (x 2)

If I look back now I can see I was pretending to be free trading my inner light for a comfy and safe jail

Out of the blue your gleaming beauty came knocking on my door I couldn't help opening my shell letting you in into the core

(Chorus)

Set me free now I know was like walking on burning coals but in my moment of misgiving you were there to warm my soul

Every effort or drop of sweat was truly truly worthy I've struggled for a breakthrough now I changed the lock of my front door

QUESTION OF PRIORITY

when you beg me bearing your cross i feel like a mouse lost in maze

every time i hold out a hand i closely saw the risk of drowning

Chorus:
listen to me
don't get along with quicksand
listen to me, (please) listen to me
no one can help but yourself needless is your opinion every scars spell out how i feel screwin up most of your life unique talent to bog all down

Chorus:
listen to me
don't get along with quicksand
listen to me, (please) listen to me

SHELTER FROM THE STORM

I realized, I got this feeling and I need share it with you Yessir I know I'm a Lucky Man, music lightens every burden

Awesome people met while playing
they are the engine
that makes me feel alive

Chorus:

When the going seems to get tougher there's a reason I won't drift I have my band
I have my music and I feel alright

Winter could be a state of mind, Fireplaces warm my life when I feel frayed and torn music is a shelter from the storm

that makes me feel alive.

(Chorus)

THANK YOU

thanks to you, I could turn the page and feel alive once again in my life hard enough, was lookin into my wounded heart and see a river filled with mud

Chorus:
but it ain't the old same tune I'm just trying to lay bare what I am I dreamed I could fly but I crashed against an heart of stone
once I was a reach man
and she plundered my soul

I want you to know I didn't ment to hurt you or overwhelm
I know my heart was a mess Sincere words like tears are flowing on this leaf today a kind of debt I must repay

Chorus:
but it ain't the old same tune I just try to lay bare what I am cause I was made to love
but I crashed against an heart of stone
once I was a reach man

Enclosing my life with fences and barricades just to hide my reign of weakness With you by side I could tear down my walls So I deeply thank you, my healing so

UPSTANDING MAN

Smalltown attitude to judge a book by its cover put a kind a spell on me froz in my inner fire

Chorus:

Walk like a man I don't care, if I'll stumble, cuz I'll keep on raise again, come hell or highwater

I'll fulfill my promise I won't let you bring me down keep on working my butts off at all cost, I'll leave my mark

(Chorus)

I'll get rid of your narrowed mind I'll be glad to break the mold
I will dance through the fire I've got music I've got power

I have to find my way
I will find my way

(Chorus)

UPON THE HILLS

Once we went out in two, upon the hills To see what was going on She was walking before me, dressed in jeans Her body was an open map
The buildings were taking care of us, so unreal They came out from my mind Watchers of that old play, they cried and laughed...

I was trying to be nice
But words don't come easily (don't come at all)
How could I love someone
Before I love myself...

Then I went out again, to meet a rose I think we were a bit confused
I let myself go and talked to her, for days and nights About the darker side of me
We got scared, didn't understand but kissed so well Shadows in our minds Once we went out in two,
But I'm by myself...

I was trying to be nice
But words came out too easily (they came at all)
How could I love someone
Before I love myself...
